

I DO NOT feel that this law should be weakened. I feel that it should remain the same and in effect. I am not interrupted with sale calls and other propanga items during my time away from WORK, i.e. when I'm sleeping or would like to just relax without a telephone ringing sales person trying to get something from me and I am not interested. If I were I would seek it out myself. thank you.

New Jerseyean
Princeton, NJ